

April 5, 2006

Wal-Mart has destroyed many communities and now wants to control those communities banking system. This should not be allowed. All Wal-Mart ever does is make more money for itself at the expense of its employees and neighbors. Rather than accepting the argument that Wal-Mart should get approved because Target has a bank, I suggest that Wal-Mart is proof that Target's approval was a mistake and should be revoked. Wal-Mart is a classic criminal, it breaks the law repeatedly - if it was a person it would have life imprisonment. Wal-Mart needs to start paying all employees a living wage and stop using up the taxes people pay to support their employees. If they do that for twenty years, I would be willing to reconsider their banking request. Sincerely,

E. Victor Mereski, USN Ret E9